The College of Forestry is pleased to announce the Forestry Open Pathways Scholarships which serve to enrich the academic environment by embracing a broad range of perspectives and to provide opportunities for our students to fully participate in a diverse community.

Scholarships of up to $5,000.00 will be available to students who will:

- enliven the college community through their experience as the first individual in their immediate family to attend college.
- enhance the college community through their experiences as members of diverse communities.
- embrace academic success with assistance in overcoming extreme economic hardship which may prevent university attendance.
